

Punjab Local Government Act 2013 and Lahore Governance Model

Rafay Alam , a multi-dimensional personality lawyer, environment activist, teacher, columnist, cyclist, etc. have rich knowledge and in-depth experience on urban issues of Lahore therefore, he was invited at PURC for a healthy discussion on Punjab Local Government Act 2013 and Lahore Governance Model. The speaker first read some clauses from the Act and explained for the audience in easy words. He also made some discussion about LDA regional development concept to include Shiekhupura, Qasoor, etc. He explained the role and need of local government in the presence of many companies in Lahore. The audience raised a lot of question to the speaker about present governance situation of Lahore and frequently formation of companies.